2025 Arizona Charitable, Military Fund and School Tax Credits

This is a summary of the 2025 Arizona Charitable Organization & School Tax Credits available for individual and married filing joint taxpayers.

These credits reduce your Arizona income tax liability (what you owe) dollar for dollar.

As tax credits all of these (Charitable, school and military tax credits) can be used, subject to carryover and maximum tax credit limits.

To the extent you claim these contributions as credits on your Arizona income tax return, you cannot claim them as federal itemized deductions.

Contributions to Qualifying Charitable Organizations Tax Credits:

There are two separate contributions eligible for this credit, Qualifying Charitable Organizations (QCOs) and Qualifying Foster Care Charitable Organizations (QFCOs).

The 2025 tax year maximum tax credit for financial contributions is limited to:

QCOs	QFCOs
$987 - married filing joint taxpayers	$1,234 - married filing joint taxpayers
$495 – single, head of household, married filing separate taxpayers	$618 – single, head of household, married filing separate taxpayers

Where to find what charities qualify:

- Officially available as a PDF file here: Credits for Contributions to QCOs and QFCOs | Arizona Department of Revenue \(azdor.gov\).
- An free online version (maintained and provided by private individuals): aztaxcreditlist.com.

Deadlines:

Contributions to a QCO or QFCO from January 1, 2026 up to April 15, 2026 may be used as a tax credit on either your 2025 or 2026 Arizona income tax return.

Carryover:

If your taxes owed are less than the qualified donations you have made, you can carryover the portion of the unused tax credit (up to the maximum tax credit difference) for 5 years. There is no carryover for donations made above the maximum tax credit amounts; however if you itemize, this amount can be claimed in your federal and AZ state filings.

Military Family Relief Fund Tax Credit:

A nonrefundable individual tax credit for cash donations made to the Military Family Relief fund which is administered by the Arizona Department of Veterans' Services.

The 2025 tax year maximum tax credit is limited to:

Military Family Relief Fund
$400 - married filing joint taxpayers
$200 – single, head of household, married filing separate taxpayers
